Laura Paine is a Senior Associate at Ginton Sweeting O'Brien. With a diverse legal career spanning multiple jurisdictions, from Italy to her current home in The Bahamas, Laura brings a wealth of expertise to the firm.

Her areas of specialization include corporate transactions, real estate development, immigration matters, and corporate services. She adeptly navigates the intricacies of legal landscapes, seamlessly bridging the gap between civil and common law.

Inspired by her peers' aspirations to become lawyers, Laura developed a profound passion for environmental law. Her firsthand experiences witnessing the evolution of environmental legislation in The Bahamas have fueled her determination to drive positive change in this field.
